

Prophetic Words from Sunday Service, May 8, 2022

Tolu: Every song we sang this morning talks about our heart. I pray that Jesus will find your heart and my heart ready for Him. That He will be able to live inside of you and me, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Thank You Lord for your faithfulness that endures forever and for being very slow to anger and rich in mercy. Bountifully rich in mercy. Thank You for your Mercy, the mercy that came for us, died for us, that took our place, that blessed us. Thank You Lord, We give you glory and honor, accept our worship Lord, Amen.

This morning, I was thinking about the life of Abraham. And when God told Him I will bless you and multiply you. I will make you the father of many nations. I thought, Lord was Abraham a problem? I knew the problem wasn't Him, it was with the women. Lord, why are we the problem? HE said when Abraham went into the servant, Ishmael came out. Abraham wasn't the problem, the good problem was that when God spoke up to the woman, it was only Him that can bring forth what God put in you is only Him that can unlock it. When he said Im going to bless you and when God said Ishmael may live but that was not my promise. God said that is not my promise, that promise came through woman Sarah, so the problem was not with Abraham, God is looking for you and I this morning as a woman, God is looking for one solid treasure, and i don't know if he will find it in you and me. Lets look at Luke 1:27 To a virgin's name was Mry, and having come in, the angel said to her rejoice highly favored one the lord is with you blessed are you among women.

God in His infinite mercy could have brought Jesus to Earth, anyway he wanted to. Jesus could have descended from heaven and shown Himself as the Savior as the world, but God was looking for a woman. As God waited for the time in the life of Sarah to bring forth the promise so also God also is looking for a woman to bring forth salvation to humanity. God is still writing, He is still writing He still has plans, He is looking down who is going to be the next Woman in God's agenda? Will God find you? All the songs this morning were talking about our Hearts. Will you be among those He will write about.? You are highly favored among women. When God says something that concerning you when he looked down searching for a vessel, looking for their heart, looking for the woman he wants to use... DOn't think I am not useful, don't think that. He has plans for each and every one of you. He has a plan for you. As we celebrate today as mothers day, dont forget the plan dont forget the anguish, don't forget the suffering the mother of the lord waited They went through pains. Whatever suffering might have been, I decree this morning the name that is above every other name that you will smile. You will smile, and that you will laugh, in Jesus name. Amen. ..

Tab.:

One day every tongue will confess that you are god. _thats not a question
One day every knee will bow,
But still the greatest treasure remains for those who gladly choose Him right now.

I've been fighting depression, I never grew up with love. My mother nor father ever told me that they loved me. I found out later, that my parents lost a baby boy (miscarage) when I was born, and I was a disappointment. I've been searching for the Lord to show up. I've been fighting depression.

I was holding my hand out and he placed in my hand, a dried up flower with no life, God told me to close my hand so I closed it, then he said to open it, and so I opened it. And when I opened my hand it was a brand new pink flower. The new flower meant renewal, a new beginning.

There is therefore no condemnation for those that are in Christ Jesus. Just as Jesus rose from the dead to new life, You come. Be encouraged this day, He is all you need. The enemy will come and roar, he will knock but he can't come in. I have placed my angels to protect you, to cover you. Call on me as you feel weary, know I am with you. As you call, they will come to your defense, As you call they search for those who call on me. I have come that you have life and have it more abundantly, Let you see, let you see, let you see today. The angels were created for your bidding. They are waiting with their arms folded to go, rise up rise up my daughter today and know, know that I am here for you. To recover, ready to spring forth a new life, for it is a new day, it is another mothers, day but it is a new day

As you walk through the water you shall not be drowned as you walk through the fire you shall not be burned for I am with You! Says the Lord!
